Closing Exercises of Bourbon College.

The commencement exercises of the Bourbon Female College was held Friday evening in the Christian church.
The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion the colors being green and white. Potted plants, syringa and white peonies were used as a very effective setting for the beautiful picture made by the five members of the graduating class.

President M. G. Thompson presided over the exercises, which were opened by a prayer by Rev. E. M. Lightfoot, of the Baptist church. Elder W. E.
Ellis, of the Christian church, delivered the address to the graduates, taking as his subject, "Culture." Misses Bee Devine, Ruby Redwitz and Katherine Thompson rendered three beautiful selections on the piano, while a vocal selection was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Mann. The housekeeping medal, which is presented each year by Dr. M. H. Dailey, was this year awarded to Miss Robards.

The graduates, handsomely gowned in white, carrying arm bouques of pink roses, accompanied by their sooners, who wore pink, entered the church in pairs to the music of a march. The seniors and their sponsors were as follows: Misses Bee Devine and Nannie Goddard, Belva Hill and Margaret Stone, Ruby Redwitz and Margaret Ardery, Anna Keith Allin and Mary Bennett Fisher, Nellie Lou Robards and Thomas Fisher.

The following gentlemen acted as ushers for the occasion: Wm. Cooper,
Harry Brent Fithian, Ireland Davis,
Harry Horton, and Blair Varden.

Large Sale of Blue Grass Seed.

The largest sale of blue grass seed that has been reported this season so far, was put through Tuesday, when Collins & Redmon, of North Middletown, this county, closed a deal for the purchase of 1,685 acres of seed, the seed privileges on 1,685 acres of land at an aggregate price of $10,650. This firm purchased the seed from 1,250 acres of land on the farm of Mr. Thos.
Henry Clay, Sr., for $8,250; from Mr.
Thos. Henry Clay, Jr., the seed from 325 acres for $1,800, and the seed from 600 acres on the farm of Mr. Geo. W.
Clay for $600. All the above seed was sold standing in the field, and the purchasers are to strip and handle the seed at their own expense. The Clay lands are all located on the Winchester pike, and their yield of seed this year is considered the best in the county.

Fell From Telephone Pole.

Wm. James, an employe of the Paris Gas and Electric Co., in the capacity of lineman, was seriously injured Wednesday afternoon when he fell from a telephone pole on Mt. Airy Avenue. The accident occurred in front of the residence of Mr. Frank O'Neil.

James was engaged in replacing a cross arm to string new wire and ascending the pole with a cross arm
when in some manner he lost footing, falling to the pavement below, a distance of thirty-five feet. It is the opinion the spurs of his climbers failed to take a firm hold in the pole, which resulted in his fall.

In the descent he was struck on the head by the cross arm and a deep gash cut over the left eye. His right elbow was dislocated and he sustained a severe sprain of the left ankle, besides being considerably bruised about the head and body. That he was not injured more seriously is remarkable from the distance he fell.

James was rendered unconscious for a time, but soon revived and after his injuries received medical attention he was taken to his home on Vine street, where he is resting comfortably.

No Christmas Money for Teachers.

County school teachers of the state are almost certain to lose their Christmas money under the operation of the new law extending from December 1 to 31 the date when sheriffs must make final settlement of tax collections with the State Auditor.

Assistant State Auditor G. B. Lickens took the matter up with Assistant Attorney General Morris to ascertain when the penalty goes on the sheriffs.

The law was passed at the instance of Senator Claude Thomas at the recent session. It gives the sheriff thirty days longer than heretofore to make final settlement, and defers the 6 percent penalty on him for that length of time. Under the old law requiring settlement the first of December sufficient money was brought in to the cashiers before Christmas. This year they cannot get their money until early in January.

WILEY POLITICIANS ATTEMPT TO SECURE CONTROL OF STATE POLITICAL MACHINE

Plan Launched, Which if Carried Into Effect, Will Deal a Black Eye to the State Administration and Undo all the Legislation Promised in Platform

BOURBON DEMOCRATS URGED TO HELP THE PARTY AND ENDORSE GOVERNOR M'CREEARY

Convention to Be Held in Paris Saturday—Every Democrat Who Has Party's Interest at Heart Should Vote to Instruct for Vansant for State Chairman

ENDORSE THE ADMINISTRATION

When the Democrats of Bourbon county meet in Mass Convention on to-morrow May 25, it should be their duty in this convention to endorse the present administration of State affairs. The principal issue at this convention will be the selection and instruction of delegates to the Louisville convention.

Little interest has been taken in the convention in this county but the wave of public sentiment and support seems at the present time to be strongly in favor of Champ Clark and it is more than probable that the Bourbon delegation will be so instructed.

Whether Bourbon county should cast its vote for Clark or any other of the candidates mentioned for the nomination the endorsement of the State administration should not be overlooked and it is with this purpose in view that the News calls the attention of the voters to the fact.

Four years ago Kentucky went Republican by a majority of 18,000 and at the last election it was returned to the Democratic fold by a majority in excess of thirty-one thousand. The present administration lead the party to victory and it was through their efforts that Republican rule was set aside. The men who put up money for the campaign and conducted an untiring canvass should be entitled to some consideration and it behooves every Democrat who has a vote in the convention Saturday to cast it for a resolution commending the administration.

There has been considerable discord in the party here of late emanating from conditions which existed in the Democratic ranks. Some few have sought to wrest the laurels for the great victory achieved last November, from those to whom they rightfully belong and assuming control will eventually lead the party to ruin. Harmony should exist, where discord now prevails.

Democrats owe the administration an endorsement. Vote for what they want.

A LETTER FROM GOV. M'CREEARY.

Frankfort, Ky., May 16, 1912.

Dear Friend:—You assisted me when I was a candidate for Governor, and I am grateful for the splendid majority which you and other Democrats gave me at the last November election. I write to you again because I believe all Democrats should be active, alert, harmonious and united.

I regret that there is discord among Democrats in Kentucky. Crimination and recrimination have been too prevalent.

I regret, also, that misrepresentation of their support or endorsement.

At the beginning of the present campaign I believed, to avoid discord, dissension and division in the Democratic party, it would be best not to instruct our delegates to the National convention, but as we already have dissensions and divisions, it does not make the same difference with me at present as when the campaign opened.

If the Democrats, at the State convention, decide to instruct the State delegates, and if the districts instruct their delegates, I will, as I have always done, faithfully submit to the will of the majority. I will support as I have always done, the nominees of the National Democratic Convention to be held in Baltimore, for President and Vice President, and I will uphold whatever action is taken by the Kentucky Democratic Convention and support any candidate for President for whom instructions may be given.

It is proper I should say in this connection that I am for the Hon. Champ Clark for the Democratic nomination for President, and I told my intimate friends when he first became a candidate that I would support him, and he has known since his first visit to Kentucky that I would do all in my power to give him the nomination. My long service with Clark in Congress, my confidence in his statesmanship, ability, Democracy and knowledge of national questions, and the fact that he was born and reared in Kentucky and that his wife is my cousin, all contributed to my desire that he be nominated.

As an explanation for the discord or division which has been injected into the campaign in Kentucky, it is now frequently alleged that it is a fight by persons hostile to the administration, to gain control of the Democratic organization or party machinery in the State so as to place the men who have been so prominent in opposition in charge of the party and make them leaders in the management of the Democratic party. It is also alleged that, as soon as they get control of the organization and of the party in the State, plans will be laid to repeal, when the next legislature meets, certain important laws enacted at the last fortunate in having elected a ticket which is watchful of the interests of the party, and the whole people, and which is giving an economical and efficient administration of affairs. The legislative record is admittedly a quarter of a century. We have kept the faith with the people and I believe in November, Kentucky will do its share in electing a Democratic President.

The management of a political campaign is no easy task. It is hard to keep from making personal enemies. But if I am elected as chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee, I promise that I will not be controlled by any faction or interest; that I will conduct the party affairs so as to deal fairly with every Democrat and bring about the advancement of Democratic principles, and the success of the Democratic party in Kentucky. I trust that I may be honored by your support.

Yours truly,
R. H. VANSANT.

Democrats owe the administration an endorsement. Vote for what they want.

TO STAUNCH DEMOCRATS.

You are probably aware of the plan that has been formed by certain parties in Kentucky who are opposed to Governor McCreary and the present State administration to reorganize the State committees at the coming State convention, get control of the party machinery and then elect a Legislature next year that will repeal all the reform legislation enacted at the last session. As part of this plan the people who are back of it are pushing Mr. J. M. Stevenson, of Winchester, as a candidate for chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee in opposition to Mr. Rufus Vansant, who as chairman of the Democratic campaign committee last year, wrested control of the State government from the Republicans and elected the entire Democratic ticket by majorities unprecedented in Kentucky for many years. The people who are back of this movement are the same ones who fought Governor McCreary before his nomination, sukked at home during the fight against O'Rear, and who after he was elected without their help, made themselves conspicuous in opposition to all measures in the Legislature which the party promised in its platform should be enacted into law if they were elected.

The whole purpose of their movement is to secure a State Central and Executive Committee hostile to the McCreary administration and then a Legislature that will repeal all the reform enactments of the last session, although the Democratic party was elected on a platform pledging the party to the enactment of these laws. A convention will be held in Paris to-morrow. The county seems to be overwhelmingly for Champ Clark, and the delegation to the State convention will be instructed for him. But the Democrats of Bourbon county should insist on a resolution endorsing in strong terms the present State administration and should instruct its delegates to vote for Hon. Rufus Vansant for chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee, so that the State administration will not be hampered by a hostile State organization and a Legislature opposed to the policies and recommendations of the Governor.

It is to be hoped that all staunch Democrats will attend the county convention to-morrow and use their influence to secure an endorsement of Governor McCreary's administration and of Rufus Vansant, who is in perfect accord with him, as chairman of the Democratic State Central and Executive Committee.

Democrats should endorse McCreary, his administration and Rufus Vansant for Chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee.

[From The Kentuckian-Citizen.]

A County Convention will be held in Paris, Saturday, May 25, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State convention at Louisville, which will select the Kentucky delegation to the National convention at Baltimore. It is conceded by all that Bourbon county is overwhelmingly for Hon. Champ Clark for President and a delegation will be sent from Bourbon instructed for him.

There is, however, another fight going on under cover of the Presidential contest that is of far greater importance to Kentucky than any influence a candidate for President, and it is the fight to elect a Democratic State Committee hostile to the Governor and control the party machinery for the purpose of antagonizing and injuring his administration.

The people who are making this fight are backing Mr. John M. Stevenson for Chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee, and the Governor and the men who were chiefly instrumental in securing his nomination and election, are for Hon. R. H. Vansant.

Mr. Vansant was Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee last year and elected the whole ticket by such a majority as has not been seen in Kentucky for years.

The Democrats of Bourbon County should understand the purpose of this fight. If it succeeds it means that the people who are hostile to the Governor will secure control of the party machinery, that the Governor will find himself hampered and hindered in all his purposes, that a Legislature will be elected next year that will repeal all the laws which the last Legislature enacted in fulfillment of the pledges made by the party in its platform, and the old ring and "interests" which have controlled the Democratic party in Kentucky for years will again be in the saddle.

Governor McCreary and the State administration deserves the commendation of the State and Bourbon County should put its foot down, good and hard, on the effort to control the party in opposition to the administration. Whoever may be the preference of individual Democrats for President, let us give the Governor assurance that we desire his administration to be a successful one, and to that end let us endorse him and his administration in language that cannot be misunderstood, and let us instruct the delegates from Bourbon to vote for Hon. R. H. Vansant as Chairman of the Democratic State Central and Executive Committee, thus insuring that the machinery of the party will not be used for the purpose of antagonizing and harassing the State administration.

The following, taken from one of our exchanges, fully covers the situation: "In the clash over contending claims in the matter of Presidential preference it is well to remember that much of the most important things for the Kentucky Democrats to decide at their convention in Louisville May 29 next relate to matters of State policy, including the reorganization of the party committees.

"Relative to these matters it should not be difficult for any intelligent Democrat to know what is going on. A combination was formed some weeks ago, with Congressman Campbell Cantrill, of the Seventh district, as the State leader, and Henry Waterson, W. O. Head and Frank McGrath as the Louisville factors, to unhorse the present leaders of the party and cripple the McCreary administration before its work is half done.

"The choice of this combination for Chairman of the State Central Committee is Mr. John Stevenson, of Winchester. "On the other hand the Democratic leaders who won the great victory of 1911 at the polls and even more memorable victories in the Kentucky Legislature of 1912 have united to support for Chairman of the State Committee Mr. R. H. Vansant, of Ashland.

"The real fight at the State convention, therefore, is the fight between Stevenson and Vansant, with Campbell Cantrill, W. O. Head and Frank McGrath backing Stevenson, and Governor McCreary, former Governor Beckham, Mr. Mayo, Mr. Camden, Mr. Haley and others of the progressive leaders supporting Mr. Vansant. The State issues involved are so much more important to the people of Kentucky than any influence Kentucky may have in the mere making of a party nomination for President that it is not surprising that interest has centered in the contest over the organization.

"Fortunately here the issue is clean-cut and unmistakable. If the Democratic party wants to turn its back upon everything it has done in Kentucky in the last eighteen months and permit the Louisville ring to dominate the State it will sanction the defeat of Mr. Vansant. If it wishes to continue the work that has been so well begun it will elect Mr. Vansant."

Vote for Rufus Vansant at the convention to-morrow for Chairman of State Central and Executive Committee and please the Governor and his friends.

Gov. McCreary wants Rufus Vansant elected as Chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee. If you are a McCreary man vote for Vansant.

A vote to instruct for Vansant is a vote to hold up the hands of the Governor and help to make his administration a success.

It is proper for Democrats to divide as they please on Presidential candidates, but every true Democrat should stand by the Governor and see to it that the party organization is not permitted to fall into the hands of parties hostile to him. Vansant is the man for State chairman. He is in perfect accord with the Governor. Vote for Vansant instructions.

If the Democrats of Bourbon county are in favor of rebuking the McCreary administration for passing laws which the party pledged by its platform to pass, they should come to the convention to-morrow and vote for Mr. Stevenson. But if they believe the Governor should be sustained for carrying out the platform promises they will vote for R. H. Vansant.

Everybody has heard of Rufus Vansant. As campaign chairman last year he piloted the party to the most notable victory achieved in Kentucky for many a year. But Stevenson—Stevenson—who the devil is Stevenson? The fellows who want Stevenson as chairman will be compelled to endorse the administration of Gov. McCreary. But what would you think of the sincerity of endorsing McCreary and at the same time asking for instructions for a head of the State committees lined up with the crowd that is trying to make the State administration a failure?

Democrats owe the administration an endorsement. Vote for what they want.

Democrats should endorse McCreary, his administration and Rufus Vansant for Chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee.

Vote for Rufus Vansant at the convention to-morrow for Chairman of State Central and Executive Committee and please the Governor and his friends.

Gov. McCreary wants Rufus Vansant elected as Chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee. If you are a McCreary man vote for Vansant.

Madden Buys Out Col. E. F. Clay.

One of the biggest transactions in thoroughbred horses made in this section was consummated Wednesday afternoon when John E. Madden, proprietor of Hamburg Place, in Fayette county, bought all of Col. E. F. Clay's Runnymede Stud mares, yearlings, sucklings and a half interest in the famous imported stallion, Starshoo, the other half of this premier sire being owned by Mr. Catesby Woodford, of Paris, President of the Kentucky Racing Association.

The horses purchased by Mr. Madden from Col. Clay number thirty-five, and while the price was not given out it is said to be approximately $40,000. By the purchase of the stock from Runnymede Stud, it easily makes Mr. Madden the most extensive breeder of thoroughbreds in the United States. Col. Clay several days ago resigned as a member of the State Racing Commission and the sale of all of his thoroughbreds is taken that he intends to retire completely from the turf and in so doing will be seen the passing of one of the grandest of the old school of American turfmen.

Paris Team Loses Four Games.

By losing yesterday afternoon Paris suffered the fourth straight defeat this week. Tuesday afternoon at Frankfort the Lawmakers took their measure in a fast game by a score of 7 to 6. Kohler pitched for Paris, and was hit freely. Outfielder Campbell was injured by a hard hit ball, having the finger on his left hand split, and was forced to retire from the game.

Tuesday morning the Bourbonites journeyed to Richmond for a set of two games with the Pioneers, and the first contest went to the latter, the score being 9 to 4. The locals pounded in four runs in the first inning, hitting Laught all over the lot. He was relieved by Black, and after that the visiting team never had a look-in, while the Fisher aggregation pounded both Kohler and B'ankenship for a total of fifteen hits.

Yesterday afternoon the Bourbonites went down in another defeat to the tune of 16 to 1. This, with the defeat by Frankfort Monday, makes the fourth straight loss by the local aggregation. Campbell was left at home when the Paris team went to Richmond Tuesday, and is nursing his injured hand. He will be out of the game for a few days yet.

The Lexington club will be here this afternoon, and the feature at White Park will be the double header. Both Paris and Lexington have been running a close race and the contests this afternoon will decide the fate of one or the other. The first game will be called at 2 o'clock.

DEATHS.

HOWARD.

—The remains of Mrs. Bettie Lewis Howard, who died on March 13, were removed from the vault in the Paris cemetery yesterday and taken to Mt. Sterling for burial beside her husband. The intentions of the family were to defer burial until the arrival of her son, Hon. H. Clay Howard, from Lima, Peru, where he is United States Minister, and who will be home for his vacation this summer, but he has written that his plans are indefinite, and the time for his arrival is so uncertain that it was thought best not to postpone the burial for a longer period. The body was taken to Mt. Sterling on the 10:10 a. m. train and burial followed in the Mt. Sterling cemetery immediately upon the arrival.

BROWN.

—Mrs. Fannie Brown, aged ninety-one years, died at the home of her son, Mr. E. B. Brown, near Hutchison, this county, yesterday morning, after an illness of several months of infirmities incident to old age. Mrs. Brown was the widow of Mr. Richard J. Brown, one of the most popular citizens of Paris, who died in June 1898, and who from 1850 to 1866 served the county in the capacity of County Clerk.

Before marriage Mrs. Brown was Miss Fanny Shy, a sister of Mr. Sim Shy, who passed away a few years ago at an advanced age. She was the mother of five children, two of whom are now living—Mrs. J. T. Martin, of this city, and Mr. E. D. Brown, with whom she has resided for several years. Several grandchildren survive, among them being Wm. Jacoby, Miss Tommie Brown and John Young Brown, of Hutchison; Mrs. Jas. Douglass, Mr. William Neal, Miss Mary Brown and Richard Brown, of this city; Lee Brown, of Oregon; and Richard Estlin, of Missouri. Fourteen great grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Brown was a member of the Christian church, professing faith at an early age. She possessed an exemplary Christian character, and was beloved by all who knew her. The funeral services will be held at the residence near Hutchison, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Eld. J. T. Sharrard, and the burial will take place at 11:30 o'clock in the Paris cemetery. The following will be the pall-bearers: Dr. William Kenney Dr. Logan Gregg, Dr. C. G. Daugherty, James Douglas, Omar Lloyd, Albert Hinton.

Dear Amy:—

You ought to see Jane's new rugs! She has bought elegant ones for the whole house and is as happy as a queen. I do think that good, tasteful rugs give any home an air—and nowadays with the elegant French and American ones and the artistic Oriental designs to choose from, there is no excuse for any woman not to buy pretty rugs. Baby John has crawled on some of my rugs until they are shabby, so I'm going to get new ones.

Yours as ever,

Lou.

Brenlin Window Shades

—Look much better, last longer!

The richest window curtains lose their beauty against the background of a shabby shade. To do your curtains justice set them off with shades of Brenlin. For Brenlin shades always hang straight and smooth, and contain no "filling" to crack, wrinkle, fade or show unsightly "pin holes." They outlast the ordinary shade several times over, yet cost but a trifle more.

BRENLIN is made in many artistic tones and in Brenlin Duplex—colored one side, white the other. Come in and let us show you samples and quote prices.

PRESCRIPTION DID THE WORK

Doctor's Advice That at First Seemed Hard-Hearted Effected a Permanent Cure.

Dr. Stephen Smith, who was 89 years old on February 19, is one of New York's distinguished surgeons, and a founder of the first nurses' training school established in this country. He is also the originator of what he calls the "peanut cure" for tuberculosis. He used it with success long before fresh-air sanitariums and sleeping bags had come into vogue.

"I happened to invent the cure in this way," he said. "A rosy-cheeked, wholesome Irish girl brought her sister to my office and asked me what I could do for her. The sister was plain, sickly, and weak, and obviously had bad lungs.

"What do you do for a living?" I asked the girl with the red cheeks.

"Tend a corner peanut stand," she said.

"And what does your sister do?"

"Oh, she's too sickly to be outdoors; we don't let her work."

"Well," I said, "you buy your sister a peanut stand and keep her outdoors. That's the only thing I can recommend."

"The two girls looked horrified and departed. I did not think anything more about the case until two years later, when two big healthy rosy-cheeked girls came to my office. I recognized one as the peanut stand keeper; the other I couldn't place. But she soon introduced herself as my old patient, the sickly sister of my rosy-cheeked visitor.

"And what have you been doing to yourself?" I asked.

"Keeping a peanut stand," she said."

HAS A NEWSPAPER OF 1773

St. Paul Man Owner of Publication in Which George Washington Was an Advertiser.

A newspaper dated Friday, August 20, 1773, has come into the possession of Edward Gervin, says the St. Paul Pioneer Press. It is a copy of the first issue of the Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser. It has not yet been submitted to an archaeologist to determine its authenticity, but it looks the part with its queer old fashioned type and its decayed yellow paper which has to be handled with care lest it crumble.

Mr. Gervin lives at the Marlowe apartments. An elderly woman formerly lived there with her son. The woman died and the son moved to other parts leaving a lot of old magazines piled in a corner of the apartment. These the janitor turned over to Mr. Gervin and in the pages of an old copy of the Youth's Companion he found the ancient newspaper.

The paper contains an interesting advertisement signed by one George Washington, a real estate operator living at Mount Vernon, who had twenty thousand acres of fine land, the patents to which he was anxious to dispose of.

One subscriber announces that a reward will be paid for a "runaway negro, Prince, a tall, slim fellow, has several hacks on his forehead, was taken up at Susquehanna Ferry but made his escape and is often seen around the neighborhood. Whoever secures him in jail so that the owner may get him again shall have five pounds reward."

Good Reason.

Daniel Kennedy, New York's famous auctioneer, was talking about a collection of French snuffboxes that had sold too low.

"You ask why the owner sold them so low?" said Mr. Kennedy. "Well, he sold them low because he had to. Poverty compelled him."

"It is like the story of the little boys with the green ribbon in their coats. The school teacher interrogated these little boys to see what their knowledge of Irish history amounted to.

"Patrick," she began, "why are you wearing a green ribbon today?"

"Because it's the anniversary of the great and good St. Patrick, ma'am."

"Very well. And you, Michael, why are you wearing a green ribbon?"

"Because St. Patrick is Ireland's patron saint, ma'am, and green is Ireland's color."

"Good! And now, Solomon Eckharstein, tell us why you in your turn are wearing a green ribbon."

"Because, ma'am, Pat and Mike and Denny said they'd put me snoot if I didn't."

New Science.

"What do these imps do?" asks the new arrival of Satan.

"They go to the world and tempt people."

"Do they always induce the people to yield to the temptation?"

"Oh, no. Not once in 100 times. But that is as much as I expect."

"My dear sir, your place is run on a most old-fashioned system, indeed! Here, look over this volume. 'Efficiency in Business.' It shows you how to get 100 per cent. results."

Well-Chosen Words.

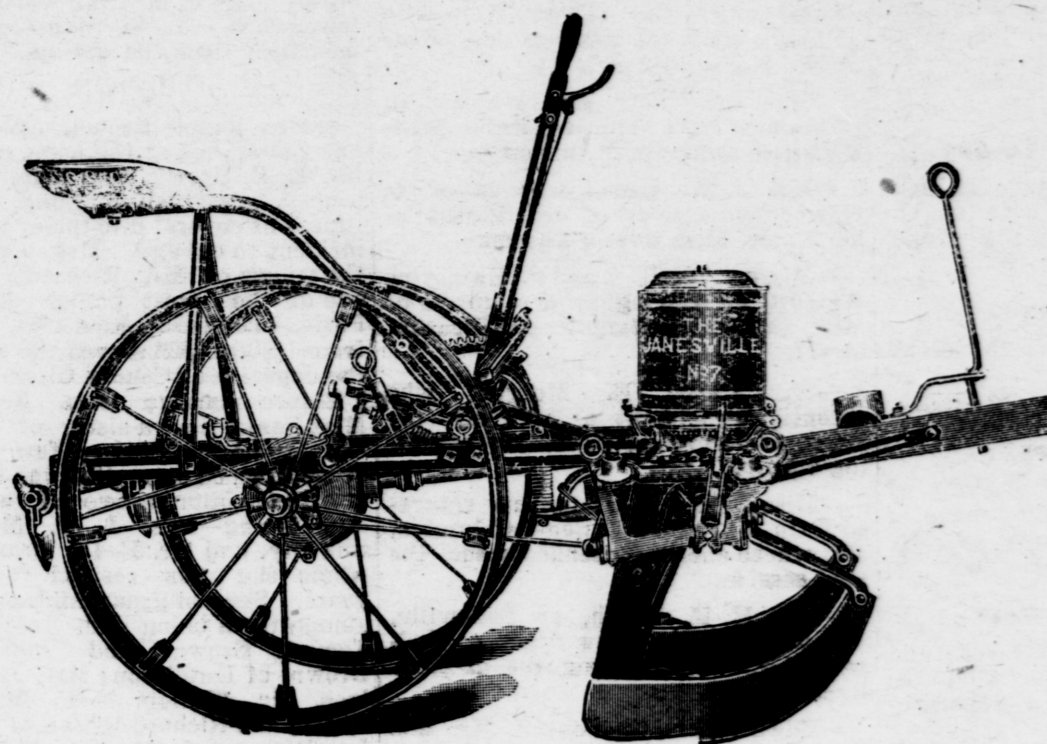

The Rev. R. J. Campbell, at a farewell luncheon in New York, said of a famous bishop who had married a tremendously rich widow:

"I suppose he proposed to her in appropriate and well-chosen terms. I suppose he said:

"Dear madam, will you exchange the widow's mite for the miter?"

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women.

Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

London Theater Managers Resent "Roasts" and Newspaper Makes a Plain Talk.

One can easily sympathize with an actor manager, and not less, as in a recent instance, with an actress-manager, who finds that personal estimates of the merits of a play are not indorsed either by the critics or by that far more important section of the community, the playgoing public. But the growing practice on the part of those who control our theaters of showing something like petulance, or worse, when they find they have made a mistake is full of awkward possibilities. Gerald du Maurier's outburst is the latest instance in point. Because those whom he invited to express opinions on his new venture, "The Dust of Egypt," told the truth about it and failed to indulge in paeans of praise he writes a portentous letter to ask "What is a critic?" The best answer we have seen comes from A. C. Benson: "I suppose that an expert critic is a man with a natural faculty of discrimination which has been trained by experience." One is disposed to believe, after witnessing the sorry stuff so often put upon the stage, that a little more exercise of a faculty for discrimination trained by experience would be to the general advantage in the enterprise of the theater. It would spare the critics many dull hours, the managers much loss of money, and—where they cannot take their losses in a sporting spirit—of temper, while the public opinion of the stage and all its works would be immensely improved.—The Globe, London.

SENSE OF HONOR IN TRAMPS

Storekeeper Who Trusts "Gentlemen of the Road" Declares They Pay Debts Promptly.

In the north part of New York there is a postmaster, who is also owner of a small general store, who has ideas about the tramp that are different from the ideas entertained by the average citizen. The owner of the store and the representative of Uncle Sam is stationed at a junction of three or four railroads, and nearby is a wood, an ideal place for a tramps' camp, which has been a rendezvous for years.

Several years ago the storekeeper began selling goods to the hoboes for cash. He observed that the same faces came in regularly, at intervals of a month or more. Soon the tramps began to ask for credit, and the storekeeper extended it. He found that invariably the tramp came in and paid his bill on his next return to the rendezvous, or if he were out on a long trip, a money order would be sent for the amount. He has dealt with the shifting population for nearly 20 years, and declares he has never lost a cent from a bad account with one. He does not know the names of his customers, except as they are accosted by their fellows, by the road names they bear, and most of the accounts are kept in the storekeeper's mind.

Troublesome Moose of Maine.

Hancock county, which is in southeastern Maine, is suffering a plague of moose and up around the headwaters of Union river and in the region of Saponic and Nickalous lakes the people who stay on farms the year around are calling for help.

Last summer the animals did serious injury to farm crops. This winter, it appears, they have yarded in and fed upon varieties of slash that seemed to be the honest pioneer's last resource. One farmer writes the state commissioners of inland fisheries and game to the effect that several years ago he bought a tract of 200 acres of wild land with the intent to go over it annually and cut out hoop poles. He did that once.

Then, as he expresses it, about the time that thousands of sprouts came up "the moose came in," destroyed the sprouts "and continue annually to destroy at least $200 of poles besides the growth." And this man and his neighbors have no redress short of the ultimate gun, since, though a state law provides reimbursement for crop damages inflicted by deer, moose do not figure in this way in any statute.—Boston Transcript.

Time Signals by Telephone.

A mechanism has been attached to the time-clock at the Hamburg observatory by which the exact official time is transmitted to the telephone system of the city. From the fifty-fifth to sixtieth second of each minute the apparatus transmits a musical signal, which is followed by a phonographic announcement of the exact minute. The signals are transmitted by special wire to the headquarters of the telephone system, and thence to each local exchange. Any telephone subscriber who wishes to get the exact time has only to ask for the time connection at his exchange and to listen for the phonographic announcement. This is an improvement upon the American method by which time signals are transmitted by telegraph only once a day.—Youth's Companion.

Office Holders All the Same.

"Office holders are not different," says the Billville Banner. "Once inside, they never answer the knock of the man with a warrant to dislodge 'em. They consider the office a public trust, and they trust that they'll hold it forever. Sometimes there is a funeral, but every obituary notice begins: 'Faithful to the last, he died at his post.' No matter how small the salary, it would be easier to remove a mountain than to pry 'em loose!'"

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

The commencement exercises of the M. F. C. which began last Friday night were continued Monday, the most of the day being devoted to the alumni of the college. The services began at 10 a. m., with a good representation of this society present, representing this and other states. The address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. Leslie Shrout, of Owingsville. The principal feature of the morning was an address by Rev. J. D. Redd, of Paintsville, a graduate of the Kentucky Wesleyan College when located here. His wife was a graduate of M. F. C. and a daughter is a member of the class of 1912. He paid a glowing tribute to Millersburg when he referred to the removal of the Kentucky Wesleyan College to Winchester by the Southern Methodist Conference. He moved every heart with pride when he touched on the noble womanhood that had gone out from this institution and were doing good work in this broad land of ours. The roll call of classes followed, and when the class of 1857 was called Mrs. America Butler, of Millersburg, was present and received a hearty applause. The musical program was good. At the close of the exercises the alumni went into secret session for a short time, electing officers for the coming year and transacting other business. At 1 p. m., the alumnae banquet took place in the dining of the college. The alumni and a few invited guests took their places at the tables under the beautiful strains of sweet music by Miss Alma Duke Jones and Esther K. Nell. After luncheon toasts were delivered with Mrs. W. M. Britt as toastmistress. At the close of the banquet an informal reception was held in the library and parlors of the college from 3 to 5. At 8 p. m., the annual concert took place in the auditorium. A large audience was present and an enjoyable program was rendered. Miss Best who is in charge of the piano department is thoroughly accomplished and one of the best instructors in Kentucky, having for two years studied under some eminent masters in Germany. The result of her efforts were reflected by her pupils.

Tuesday at 10 a. m. the annual commencement exercises took place in the auditorium. The spirit of pride throbbed in every heart when the 1912 class proceeded by their lady and gentleman ushers filed in solemn procession down the aisle and took their places on the rostrum. The principal feature of the morning was the address of Dr. Richard Wilkerson, of Louisville. He took as the basis of his thought the "Economic of Education." In the opinion of many who heard him it was the best literary address delivered in Millersburg on a commencement occasion.

A brilliant musical program was rendered during the exercises. Following the address Dr. C. C. Fisher, president of the college, in a brief talk presented the diplomas to the class of 1912. The following constituted the senior class: Adwina Ammerman, Virginia Austin Crutcher, Mary Elizabeth Ingels, Kizzie May McDaniel, Clara Peck, Jennie Maurie Pepper, Nola Dee Redd, Margaret Emily Stanard, Nancy Myers Whaley. There were also four special graduates, Katherine Allen Harper, Bettie Icel Maris in piano and Jennie Maurie Pepper and Dr. McDowell Shivel, in expression. The general average was then read for the year, Miss Margaret Stanard, of Pueblo, Col., receiving the highest, an average of ninety-seven. Quite a number received an average above ninety-five.

With the commencement exercises of 1912 closes one of the most brilliant as well as the most successful years in the history of the M. F. C. This was also one of the most brilliant commencement seasons, while there were not many out of town guests present, visitors in the various homes as we have had in the past, yet all the exercises were greeted with large audiences, and were it not for the help proposition there would have been more visitors in our homes.

The following is a partial list of visitors, Misses Elizabeth Crutcher and Flossie Stagg, of Paris. Miss Lillie May McKee, Middlesboro. Mrs. H. B. Smith, Glasgow. Miss Ethel O'Neal, Marroilton, Ark. Misses Kate Lee and Leota Deering, Poplar Plains. Mr. M. E. Wilson, Wellington, Del. Mrs. S. P. Sernggs, Johnson Junction. Mrs. E. Marvin, Frankfort. Mrs. Geo. Jacoby, Paris. Mrs. Joe Jacoby, Paris. Miss Willia Lou Jacoby, Paris. Mrs. Frank Maris, London. Miss Nancy Hieronimus, St. Helena. Miss Katherine Weathers, Clintonville. Miss Grace Haskins, Clintonville. Mrs. Putman, Mrs. C. D. The F. T. Conclave convenes in Paris next Tuesday night. The Paris commandery proposes bringing a large number of them to Millersburg Thursday afternoon from 2 to 6. These conclaves are made up of the representative people of Kentucky, and Millersburg should feel justly proud of having the privilege of entertaining these people and it should be done right. Let them know that you appreciate their coming. Get out your flags and bunting and decorate the old town. Receptions will be given them at the M. F. C. and M. M. I. It is to the interest of the good people of Millersburg and especially the two schools of which we are all justly proud to spare no effort to give these people a good time. Get ready for it. Let's do it right, so that when they go away they may be glad for having come here. We want them to see our school grounds and meet the presidents of the two in situations. Don't forget the day, Thursday, May 30th.

There will be a called meeting of Amity Lodge No. 40, F. & A. M. at 7:30 this evening for the purpose of conferring the first degree on Robert Hughes. All members are urged to be present.

The cadets of M. M. I. will present the "Toastmaster" at the drill hall Monday evening. The play is one of the best three-act college plays ever written and will be produced with excellent effects by the cadets. It promises to be one of the notable events of the commencement at this institution. Seats on sale at Ingles Bros. Reserved seats 35 cents, general admission 25 cents.

The following invitations have been issued:

"The Senior Class of the Millersburg Military Institute requests your presence at their commencement exercises Tuesday morning, May twenty-eighth nineteen hundred and twelve, M. M. I. Drill Hall."

The graduates will be: William Graves Blackburg, Charles Moore Gentry, William Jefferson Harris, Jesse Day Kash, Ollie Wathen McClure, Karry Benjamin Miller, Edwin Wilder Wigglesworth, Frank Curle Wigglesworth.

The calendar is as follows: Sunday, May 6, 10:30 a. m. Commencement Sermon, M. M. I. Drill Hall, by Rev. M. T. Chandler, Pastor M. E. C. S., Harrodsburg. Monday, May 27, 9:30 a. m., Exhibition and Competitive Drill, M. M. I. Campus. Monday, May 27, 2:30 p. m. ball game, M. M. I. grounds. Monday, May 27, 8 to 9:30 p. m., entertainment, M. M. I. Cheaper Gas.

The Paris Gas Works can make double the quantity of gas they are now selling. To induce the sale of this greater quantity, the discount has been made greater so that the consumer's bill may be less, although using a greater quantity of gas.

Instead of a straight ten cents per thousand discount for prompt payment as now, the discount will be as follows:

On first 2,000 cubic feet, or less, the discount will be twenty cents per thousand.

On second 2,000 cubic feet, the discount will be 35 cents per thousand.

All over 4,000 cubic feet the discount will be 60 cent per thousand.

The company hopes that this low cost of gas will induce a large consumption, especially for fuel purposes.

Buy your gas stoves now and get an electric fan and be comfortable.
